

Our Tax Group

Our tax group is a diverse group of solicitors, accountants, litigators and chartered tax advisers, the result of which is a formidable, integrated pool of tax expertise and a wealth of advisory experience. Each year we recruit a Tax Trainee for the Group and this is a unique opportunity to train in a large firm, but with a small highly specialised team.

As a Tax Trainee you will have a direct relationship with the Head of Tax Compliance Services and Tax Partners who will support you in your role. In this established environment there will be excellent prospects for growth and career progression in a Tax Compliance or Tax Advisory role.

In a busy environment, you will assist with the preparation of tax registrations, filings and returns across all tax heads and fulfil a junior role on transactions and advisory projects from time to time. This will require excellent interpersonal, communication and organisational skills and an ability to read and interpret legislation and practice notes.

In addition to being exposed to complex, high profile work across a diverse range of clients, we also offer a competitive training package and an environment which truly invests in its people.
